ROMANTIC WINES OF PIEDMONT

BAROLO San Lorenzo di Verduno

Robert Parker
WINE ADVOCATE

93 VINTAGE
2014

This pretty Barolo opens to soft earthy and fruity aromas, and it builds slowly in intensity. The Pelassa 2014 Barolo San Lorenzo di Verduno is a little more territory-driven than the warmer 2015 vintage that I tasted at the same time. The 2015 vintage is more exuberant and fruit-forward, but the 2014 peels back carefully to reveal dusty mineral, forest berry, licorice, smoke and tar. The presentation is incredibly fragile and delicate.

93+ VINTAGE
2015

The Pelassa 2015 Barolo San Lorenzo di Verduno shows a candid fruit characteristic with pretty contours of cassis, licorice and blood orange. The wine opens beautifully in the glass, showing an inviting and open personality that is immediately attractive and memorable. This Barolo from Verduno is delicate and nuanced in terms of mouthfeel, with long-lasting and polished endnotes of cassis, cherry, ash and licorice.

2016

The Pelassa 2016 Barolo San Lorenzo di Verduno is a single-vineyard expression from one of the most popular and exciting subzones in the appellation. Verduno is known for its delicate fruit nuances and for the silky and fine sensations that are so carefully revealed in these wines. This expression offers cassis, wild cherry and bitter almond. You nouthfeel is soft, slender and fragile.

Grape variety: 100% Nebbiolo in its Michet, Lampia and Rosè sub-varieties.

Vine-Training system and density: Guyot, 5000 vines per hectare.

Harvest time: manual in the second half of October.

Winemaking: this Barolo is produced in the historical cru of San Lorenzo in the village of Verduno. The vinification is traditional with fermentation of about 15 days at 26°C. Destemming, soft pressing of the grapes. The must is pumped over on a déstavage way to improve the extraction of the colour and the varietal aromas. After the malolactic fermentation the wine is matured in Slavonian and French wooden casks and barrels with weekly topping up, tastings and analyses to make sure the wine is developing correctly.

Ageing: 4 years, 2 years in tonneaux and 12 months in stainless steel before bottling.

Characteristics: very velvety and elegant tannins, the Barolo San Lorenzo shows the typical finesse of the village of Verduno with scent of spices and roses.

Very powerful it has a great ageing potential if stored in good conditions.

Food pairing: excellent with grilled red meats, meats cooked on the spit; "haute cuisine" white and red meats with white and dark sauces. Superb with truffle. It is best to decant and serve at 18°C.

Awards: Robert Parker The Wine Advocate - IWC International Wine Challenge.
